INSURANCE DECLARATION

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of insurance you have a duty, at law, to disclose to your Insurer all material facts. A material fact is one which may influence a prudent insurer in deciding whether or not to insure you, and if so, at what terms and conditions and for what premium. You have the same duty to disclose these matters before you renew or make changes to your contract of insurance.

Examples of information you may need to disclose include:

- * anything that increases the risk of an insurance claim;
- * any criminal conviction or offence or any traffic conviction or offence;
- * if another Insurer has cancelled or refused to insure or renew insurance, has imposed special terms, or refused any claim;
- * any insurance claim or loss you have made or suffered in the past.

These examples are a guide only. If you are not sure whether you need to disclose a particular piece of information, please ask.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure your insurer may be entitled to avoid the contract of insurance from the beginning and reject any claim under it.

WHEN IN DOUBT DISCLOSE

GENERAL QUESTIONS

These questions are to address your duty of disclosure. They are intended to draw your attention to matters which may influence an insurer. There may be other matters which you should also disclose.

Have you or any other person to be covered under this policy or any person who may benefit from this insurance:
